Independent Auditor's Report

To the council of Caldwell First Nation

Opinion

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of Caldwell First Nation and its subsidiaries (the Group), which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as at March 31, 2022, the consolidated statements of operations, change in net financial assets, and cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Group as at March 31, 2022, and its results of operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian Public Sector accounting standards.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the consolidated financial statements in Canada, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with Canadian Public Sector accounting standards, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion. We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

1. Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Financial Instruments

The First Nation classifies its financial instruments as either fair value or amortized cost. The First Nation's accounting policy for each category is as follows:

Fair Value

This category includes equity instruments quoted in an active market. They are initially recognized at cost and subsequently carried at fair value. Unrealized gains and losses from changes in the fair value of financial instruments are recognized in the statement of remeasurement gains and losses. Upon settlement, the cumulative gain or loss is reclassified from the statement of remeasurement gains and losses and recognized in the statement of operations. Interest and dividends attributable to financial instruments are reported in the statement of operations.

When investment income and realized and unrealized gains and losses from changes in the fair value of financial instruments are externally restricted, the investment income and fair value changes are recognized as revenue in the period in which the resources are used for the purpose specified.

Transaction costs are expensed as incurred for financial instruments measured at fair value.

Amortized Cost

This category includes cash, accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued liabilities, and infant trusts. They are initially recognized at cost and subsequently carried at amortized cost using the effective interest rate method, less any impairment losses on financial assets, except for contributions, which are initially recognized at fair value. The carrying amount of each of these financial instruments is presented on the statement of financial position.

All financial assets are tested annually for impairment. Writedowns on financial assets in the amortized cost category are recognized when the amount of a loss is known with sufficient precision, and there is no realistic prospect of recovery. Financial assets are then written down to net recoverable value with the writedown being recognized in the statement of operations.

Transaction costs are added to the carrying value for financial instruments measured using cost or amortized cost.

1. Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Tangible Capital Assets Tangible capital assets are stated at cost less accumulated amortization. Expenditures for repairs and maintenance are expensed as incurred. Betterments that extend the useful life of the asset are capitalized.

Amortization based on the estimated useful life of the asset is calculated as follows:

	Method	Rate
Building	Diminishing balance	4%
Hunting and fishing facility	Diminishing balance	4%
Equipment and tiling	Diminishing balance	20%
Solar equipment	Diminishing balance	30%
Computer equipment	Diminishing balance	30%
Sewer installations	Diminishing balance	20%

Use of Estimates The preparation of financial statements in accordance with Canadian public sector accounting standards requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amount of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. These estimates are reviewed periodically, and, as adjustments become necessary, they are reported in operations in the period in which they become known.

Investments Short term investments are recorded at market value. These investments include seven Caldwell Infant Trusts.

Long term investments are recorded at market value. These investments include government bonds, mutual funds and various equity holdings.

12. Financial Instrument Fair Value Measurement

The following table provides an analysis of financial instruments that are measured subsequent to initial recognition at fair value, grouped into levels 1, 2 and 3 based on the degree to which the fair value is observable:

- Level 1 fair value measurements are those derived from quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities using the last bid price;
- Level 2 fair value measurements are those derived from inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability either directly (i.e. as prices) or indirectly (i.e. derived from prices); and
- Level 3 fair value measurements are those derived from valuation techniques that include inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs).

2022
	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
Caldwell infant trusts payable	$ 1,065,229	$ -	$ -	$ 1,065,229

2021
	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
Caldwell infant trusts payable	$ 627,076	$ -	$ -	$ 627,076

There were no transfers between Level 1 and Level 2 for the year ended March 31, 2022. There were also no transfers in or out of Level 3.

13. Financial Instrument Risk Management

The First Nation is exposed to various risks through its financial instruments. The following analysis provides information about the First Nation's risk exposure and concentration. There have been no significant changes in the nature or concentration of the risk exposures from the prior year, unless otherwise noted.

Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk that one party to a financial instrument will cause a financial loss for the other party by failing to discharge an obligation. The First Nation is exposed to credit risk resulting from the possibility that a customer or counterparty to a financial instrument defaults on their financial obligations; if there is a concentration of transactions carried out with the same counterparty; or of financial obligations which have similar economic characteristics such that they could be similarly affected by changes in economic conditions. The First Nation's financial instruments that are exposed to concentrations of credit risk relate primarily receivables from government sources. The First Nation works to ensure they meet all eligibility criteria in order to qualify to receive the funding.

At year end, the amounts outstanding for the First Nation's accounts receivable are as follows:

As at March 31	2022
	Accounts receivable	Other accounts receivable	Total
Current	$ 310,967	$ -	$ 310,967
1 to 30 days	2,593	-	2,593

	Accounts receivable	Other accounts receivable	Total
Current	$ 977,913	$ -	$ 977,913
1 to 30 days	-	-	-

Over 90 days	11,035	36,312	47,347
Total	$ 992,264	$ 36,312	$ 1,028,576

table are not past due or impaired. This is based on the First Nation's assessment and past experience regarding collection rates.

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the First Nation will encounter difficulty in meeting its obligations associated with financial liabilities. Liquidity risk includes the risk that, as a result of operational liquidity requirements, the First Nation will not have sufficient funds to settle a transaction on the due date; will be forced to sell financial assets at a value, which is less than what they are worth; or may be unable to settle or recover a financial asset. The First Nation is exposed to this risk mainly in respect of its accounts payable and infant trusts payable.

The following table sets out the contractual maturities (representing undiscounted contractual cash-flows) of financial liabilities:

2022
	Within 6 months	6 months to 1 year	1 to 5 years	Over 5 years	Total
Accounts payable	$ 623,294	$ -	$ -	$ -	$ 623,294
Infant trusts payable	-	-	-	1,065,229	1,065,229
	$ 623,294	$ -	$ -	$ 1,065,229	$ 1,688,523
2021
	Within 6 months	6 months to 1 year	1 to 5 years	Over 5 years	Total
Accounts payable	$ 365,673	$ -	$ -	$ -	$ 365,673
Infant trusts payable	-	-	-	627,076	627,076
	$ 365,673	$ -	$ -	$ 627,076	$ 992,749

The First Nation's approach to managing liquidity is to ensure, as far as possible, that it will always have sufficient cash flows to fund its operations and to meet its liabilities when due, under both normal and stressed conditions. The First Nation maintains a portion of its invested assets in liquid securities. The First Nation also maintains certain credit facilities, which can be drawn upon as needed.

13. Financial Instrument Risk Management (continued)

Market risk

Market risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices. Market risk comprises three types of risk: currency risk, interest rate risk and other price risk. The First Nation is mainly exposed to interest rate risk and other price risk. The First Nation's risk management strategies are described below.

Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The First Nation is exposed to interest rate risk on its fixed and floating interest rate financial instruments. Fixed-interest instruments subject the First Nation to a fair value risk while the floating rate instruments subject it to a cash flow risk.

The First Nation is exposed to interest rate risk in relation to interest expense on its revolving credit facility since the credit facility bears interest at a floating interest rate. Currently the First Nation has not drawn on this credit facility and therefore the risk is considered to be limited.

14. COVID-19

On March 11, 2020, the World Health Organization declared the outbreak of the coronavirus (COVID-19) a pandemic, resulting in economic uncertainties affecting the organization. Management is actively monitoring the affect on its financial condition, liquidity, operations and workforce. Given the daily evolution of the COVID-19 outbreak and the global responses to curb its spread, the organization is not able to fully estimate the effects of the COVID-19 outbreak on its results of operations, financial condition or liquidity at this time.

15. Contingent Liability

The First Nation has been named as a defendant in several lawsuits arising in the ordinary course of operations. The First Nation has contested these claims. Legal counsel for the First Nation has advised that it is premature to make any evaluation of the possible outcome or possible settlement amount of these claims. Consequently, no provision for these claims has been made in the financial statements.
