Management's Responsibility for Financial Reporting

The accompanying consolidated financial statements of Flying Post First Nation are the responsibility of management and have been approved by the Chief and Council.

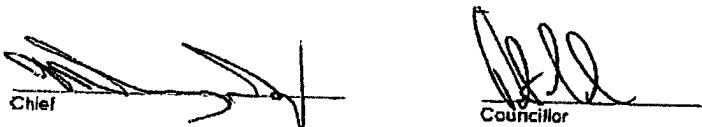

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared by management in accordance with Canadian public sector accounting standards. Financial statements are not precise since they include certain amounts based on estimates and judgments. When alternative accounting methods exist, management has chosen those it deems most appropriate in the circumstances, in order to ensure that the financial statements are presented fairly, in all material respects.

Flying Post First Nation maintains systems of internal accounting and administrative controls of high quality, consistent with reasonable cost. Such systems are designed to provide reasonable assurance that the consolidated financial statements are relevant, reliable and accurate and Flying Post First Nation's assets are appropriately accounted for and adequately safeguarded.

The Council of Flying Post First Nation is responsible for ensuring that management fulfills its responsibilities for financial reporting and is ultimately responsible for reviewing and approving the consolidated financial statements. Council carries out this responsibility principally through its Financial Administration.

The Financial Administration meets periodically with the Chief and Council, as well as the external auditors, to discuss internal controls over the financial reporting process, auditing matters and financial reporting issues, to satisfy themselves that each party is properly discharging their responsibilities, and to review the annual consolidated financial statements and the external auditors' report. The Financial Administration reports its findings to the Council for consideration when approving the financial statements for issuance to the Members.

The consolidated financial statements have been audited by Grant Thornton LLP in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards on behalf of the Members. Grant Thornton LLP has full and free access to the Council.

To the Chief, Council and Members of
Flying Post First Nation

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of Flying Post First Nation which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as at March 31, 2017, and the consolidated statements of financial activities, operations and accumulated surplus, trust fund statement of changes in fund balance, investment fund statement of changes in fund balance, casino rama fund statement of changes in fund balance, cash flows and changes in net financial assets for the year then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management's responsibility for the financial statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these consolidated financial statements in accordance with Canadian public sector accounting standards, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the First Nation's preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the First Nation's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Flying Post First Nation as at March 31, 2017, and the results of its operations and accumulated surplus, trust fund statement of changes in fund balance, investment fund statement of changes in fund balance, casino rama fund statement of changes in fund balance, cash flows and changes in net financial assets for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian public sector accounting standards.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

March 31, 2017

GENERAL

Flying Post First Nation is a band management group recognized under the Indian Act. The purpose of Flying Post First Nation is to provide leadership and accountability to the members of the band.

1. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

These consolidated financial statements of Flying Post First Nation are prepared by management in accordance with accounting policies generally accepted for the public sector as prescribed by the Public Sector Accounting Board ("PSAB") of CPA Canada. The more significant of these accounting policies are as follows:

Reporting entity

These consolidated financial statements reflect the assets, liabilities, revenue and expenses of the Operating Fund, externally restricted Casino Rama Fund and Indigenous and Northern Affairs Canada Trust Fund of Flying Post First Nation and include all band activities under the control of the First Nation, including those within Flying Post Holdings Inc., Flying Post Development General Partner Inc. and Flying Post Development Limited Partnership.

- [a] Portfolio investments wherein the First Nation owns a minority interest, or non-participating equity, and is not directly or indirectly through partnerships, involved in the management of the business operations are accounted for by the cost method.

Under the cost method, investments are carried at cost and earnings are reflected only to the extent of dividends received. The carrying value of an investment is written-down to its net recoverable amount if a decline in market value is judged to be other than temporary.

- [b] Business enterprise investments wherein the First Nation owns a participating equity interest and is directly or indirectly through partnerships, involved in the management of the business operations are accounted for by the modified equity method.

Under the modified equity method, the investment is initially recorded at cost and the carrying value is thereafter adjusted to include the First Nation's pro rata share of post-acquisition earnings of the investee. The amount of the adjustment is included in the determination of net income of the First Nation's Investment Fund and the investment account is also increased or decreased to reflect the First Nation's share of capital transactions.

The equity method is only modified to the extent that the business enterprise's accounting principles are not adjusted to conform with those of the First Nation.

All interfund balances and transactions have been eliminated.

Flying Post First Nation
Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements
March 31, 2017

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents consist of cash on hand, balances in banks and term deposits with a maturity period of three months or less at the date of acquisition.

Non-financial assets

Non-financial assets are not available to discharge existing liabilities and are held for use in the provision of services. They have useful lives extending beyond the current year and are not intended for sale in the ordinary course of operations. The change in non-financial assets during the year, together with the annual surplus, provides the change in net financial assets for the year.

Tangible capital assets

Tangible capital assets are recorded at cost less accumulated amortization and write-downs, if any. Cost includes all amounts that are directly attributable to acquisition, construction, development or betterment of the assets. The cost of the tangible capital assets are amortized on a declining balance basis at the rates set out below:

Automotive	30%
Building	5%
Computer equipment	33%
Office equipment	20%

Fund accounting

The First Nation uses fund accounting procedures which result in a self-balancing set of accounts for each fund established by legal, contractual or voluntary actions. The various funds have been amalgamated for the purpose of presentation in the summary financial statements.

The Operating Fund which reports on programs administered for the Community on behalf of various government agencies and corporate entities.

The Trust Fund reports on Trust Funds owned by the First Nation and held by the Government of Canada.

The Investment Fund which reports the First Nation's share of earnings and equity in investments and restricted contributions from investee corporations. These fund are currently held in trust by the Wabun Tribal Council.

The Casino Rama Fund reports the activities financed in whole or in part by proceeds from Ontario First Nations Limited Partnership and Ontario First Nations (2008) Limited Partnership.

Flying Post First Nation

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

March 31, 2017

Government transfers

Government transfers are transfers of monetary assets or tangible capital assets from a government to an individual, an organization or another government that are not the result of an exchange transaction, expected to be repaid in the future or expected to produce a direct financial return. Government transfers received are recognized in the consolidated financial statements as revenue when the transfers are authorized and all eligibility criteria have been met except when there is a stipulation that gives rise to an obligation that meets the definition of a liability. In that case, the transfer is recorded as a liability and recognized as revenue as the stipulations are met.

Government transfers made to a recipient by the First Nation are recorded as an expense when they are authorized and the recipient meets all eligibility criteria.

Revenue recognition

Other revenue is recognized in the period in which the related services are performed or goods are sold. Amounts collected for which the related services have yet to be performed or goods have yet to be sold are recognized as a liability and recognized as revenue when the related services are performed or goods are sold.

Interest is recognized as it is earned.

Funds received, other than government transfers, for specified purposes which are externally restricted by legislation, regulation or agreement and are not available for general purposes are accounted for as deferred revenue on the Consolidated Statement of Financial Position. The revenue is recognized in the related schedules in the year in which it is used for the specified purpose.

Use of estimates

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with Canadian public sector accounting standards requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. These estimates and assumptions are based on management's historical experience, best knowledge of current events and actions the First Nation may undertake in the future. Significant estimates include valuation allowance for accounts receivable and investments and recoveries from and payments to government agencies related to surpluses/deficiencies of funds transferred.

5. PROMISSORY NOTE

During the year, Flying Post First Nation received proceeds from a promissory note from Ministry of Indian Affairs and Northern Development for upcoming expenses related to a treaty land entitlement claim in the amount of $77,203 [2016 - $nil]. The note is interest free due on the earlier of March 31, 2021 or a date on which the Claim is settled.

6. TANGIBLE CAPITAL ASSETS

Details of year-end tangible capital asset balances are as follows:

	2017		2016
	Cost $	Accumulated amortization $	Cost $	Accumulated amortization $
Automotive	23,664	22,504	23,664	22,007

Tangible capital assets, net	28,454		31,184

Amortization for the year is $2,730 [2016 - $3,414].

7. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The fair values of cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, and accounts payable and accrued liabilities approximate their carrying value because of their short-term to maturity.

Market risk arises from the First Nation's investment portfolio, consisting of equity instruments. It is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows from a financial instrument will fluctuate because of general economic and other market factors affecting equity prices.

8. CONTINGENCIES

The fund balances may include surpluses/deficits from funds contributed by government agencies. Such surpluses/deficits may be subject to recovery/payment by the contributing agencies. These potential liabilities/receivables are not recorded until they become payable/recoverable. Some restrictions may apply to the use of the funds.
