Management's Responsibility for Financial Reporting

The accompanying consolidated financial statements of PEGUIS FIRST NATION and all the information in this annual report are the responsibility of management and have been approved by the Chief and Council of PEGUIS FIRST NATION. The preparation of periodic financial statements involves the use of estimates and approximations because the precise determination of financial information frequently depend on future events. The financial statements have been prepared by management within reasonable limits of materiality and within the framework of Canadian public sector accounting standards.

The First Nation maintains systems of internal accounting and administrative controls of high quality, consistent with reasonable cost. Such systems are designed to provide reasonable assurance that the financial information is relevant, reliable and accurate and the First Nation's assets are appropriately accounted for and adequately safeguarded.

The PEGUIS FIRST NATION Council is responsible for ensuring that management fulfills its responsibilities for financial reporting and is ultimately responsible for reviewing and approving the financial statements.

BDO Canada LLP, Chartered Professional Accountants, as the First Nation's appointed external auditor, has audited the consolidated financial statements. The Independent Auditor's Report is addressed to the Members and appears on the following page. The opinion is based upon an examination conducted in accordance with Canadian auditing standards, performing such tests and other procedures as they consider necessary to obtain reasonable assurance that the consolidated financial statements are free of material misstatement and present fairly the financial position and results of operations of the First Nation in accordance with Canadian public sector accounting standards. BDO Canada LLP has full and free access to the Council.

Independent Auditor's Report

To the Members of PEGUIS FIRST NATION

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of PEGUIS FIRST NATION, which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as at March 31, 2016, and the consolidated statements of operations, changes in net debt and cash flows for the year then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management's Responsibility for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these consolidated financial statements in accordance with Canadian public sector accounting standards, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the presentation of the consolidated financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our qualified audit opinion.

Basis for Qualified Opinion

The First Nation has had pending claims and funding disputes for flood expenditures in the amount of $10,354,553 the valuation and collectability of which is not susceptible of satisfactory audit verification as at the year end. During the current year, additional claims of $7,075,866 were recorded as recoverable. Accordingly, verification of these revenues was limited to the amounts recorded in the records of the First Nation and claimed to the funders. Therefore, we were not able to determine whether any adjustments might be necessary to other revenues, annual deficit, cash flows from operations for the years ended March 31, 2016 and 2015, financial assets as at March 31, 2016 and 2015, and accumulated surplus as at March 31, 2016 and 2015. Our audit opinion on the consolidated financial statements for the year ended March 31, 2015 was modified accordingly because of the possible effects of this limitation in scope.

Qualified Opinion

In our opinion, except for the possible effects of matters described in the Basis for Qualified Opinion paragraph, the consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of PEGUIS FIRST NATION as at March 31, 2016 and the results of its operations, its changes in net debt and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian public sector accounting standards.

PEGUIS FIRST NATION

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

For the year ended March 31, 2016

1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

a) Basis of Accounting

These financial statements were prepared using the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with Canadian public sector accounting standards. The accrual basis recognizes revenues as they become available and measurable; expenditures are recognized as they are incurred and measurable as a result of receipts of goods or services and the creation of a legal obligation to pay.

b) Basis of Consolidation

The Peguis First Nation reporting entity includes the Peguis First Nation government and all related entities which are accountable to Peguis First Nation and are either owned or controlled by Peguis First Nation.

These financial statements consolidate the assets, liabilities and results of operations for Peguis First Nation and use accounting standards which lend themselves to consolidation. All inter-entity balances have been eliminated on consolidation, but in order to present the results of operations for each specific segment, transactions amongst programs have been eliminated on the segment disclosures separately.

During the prior year, Peguis Development Corporation Ltd. was transferred to Chief Peguis Investment Trust. However Peguis First Nation retained control over the organization until the current year.

The following entities' results of operations are included in these financial statements under the full consolidation method:

Unincorporated Departments

Peguis School Board
Peguis Health Services
Peguis Training and Employment
Peguis Gaming Commission
Peguis Treaty Committee
Peguis Recreation Committee
Peguis Housing Authority
Peguis Arena Committee
Peguis TLE Implementation Office

PEGUIS FIRST NATION

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

For the year ended March 31, 2016

1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

c) Investments

Investments in loans are initially recorded at cost. Valuation allowances are used to reflect loans receivable at the lower of cost and net recoverable value.

d) Revenue Recognition

Revenues are recognized in the period in which the transactions or events occurred that gave rise to the revenues. All revenues are recorded on an accrual basis, except when the accruals cannot be determined, with a reasonable degree of certainty or when their estimation is impracticable.

Government transfers are the transfer of assets that are recognized and released by the payor government and are not representative of the full benefit of the recipient government's treaty entitlements. Government transfers are not the result of an exchange transaction, are not expected to be repaid in the future or are the result of a direct financial return.

Government transfers are recognized as revenues when the transfer is authorized and any eligibility criteria are met, except to the extent that the transfer stipulations give rise to an obligation that meets the definition of a liability. Transfers are recognized as deferred revenue when transfer stipulations give rise to a liability. Transfer revenue is recognized in the statement of operations as the stipulation liabilities are settled.

e) Tangible Capital Assets

Tangible capital assets are stated at cost less accumulated amortization. Cost includes all costs directly attributable to acquisition or construction of the tangible capital asset including transportation costs, installation costs, design and engineering fees, legal fees and site preparation costs. Contributed tangible capital assets are recorded at purchased fair value at the time of the contribution, with a corresponding amount recorded as revenue. Crown lands received by Treaty Land Entitlement process are not recorded unless these are purchased by the First Nation.

Amortization based on the estimated useful life of the asset is recorded once the asset is available for productive use as follows:

Infrastructure	5% straight-line basis
Buildings	20 to 40 years straight-line basis
Equipment	6 % to 20% straight-line basis
Automotive	20% straight-line basis

f) Financial Instruments

The First Nation's financial instruments consist of cash and bank, bank indebtedness, restricted cash, accounts receivable, due from government and government organizations, long-term investments, accounts payable, demand loans and long-term debt. Unless otherwise noted, it is management's opinion that the First Nation is not exposed to significant interest, currency or credit risks arising from these financial instruments. The fair values of these financial instruments approximate their carrying values, unless otherwise noted.

PEGUIS FIRST NATION

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

For the year ended March 31, 2016

1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

g) Measurement Uncertainty

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in accordance with Canadian public sector accounting standards requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the year. Actual results could differ from management's best estimates as additional information becomes available in the future.

Measurement uncertainty exists specifically in the determination of accounts receivable, useful life capital assets, termination entitlements and unexpended funding. The recovery of eligible costs and reconciliation of funding provided for emergency flood operations and other restricted funding is dependent upon future events.

h) Employee Future Benefits

The First Nation maintains a defined contribution pension plan for its personnel. Expenses for this plan are equal to the First Nation's required contribution for the year.

The First Nation also offers termination benefits to its employees upon voluntary or involuntary termination of employment. The liability for this plan is determined using the projected benefit method and based on best estimate assumptions based on the employees' projected tenure and salary. The First Nation's expense is recorded as the change in the liability for the year.

i) Restricted Cash

Restricted cash balances represent assets segregated for use for replacement reserves in accordance with CMHC and FNIHB operating agreements. Restricted cash includes trust funds held by INAC and legal counsel and cash held as security for long term debt.

j) Liability for Contaminated Sites

Liabilities for remediation of a contaminated site are recognized at the best estimate of the amount required to remediate the contaminated site when contamination exceeding an environmental standard exists, the First Nation is either directly responsible or accepts responsibility, it is expected that future economic benefits will be given up, and a reasonable estimate of the amount is determinable. At each financial reporting date, the First Nation reviews the carrying amount of any liability and remeasures.

PEGUIS FIRST NATION

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

For the year ended March 31, 2016

2. Nature of Entity

The First Nation is a non-profit, non-taxable entity and is engaged in the social, cultural, educational and economic development of First Nation citizens of Peguis First Nation. The First Nation provides services such as fire, ambulance, public works, community planning, parks and recreation, library and other general government operations. These financial statements do not include the following:

Peguis First Nation TLE Trust

Peguis First Nation (Peguis) entered into a Treaty Entitlement Agreement with the governments of Canada and Manitoba for the purpose of acquiring up to 166,794 acres of additional reserve lands. Under the agreement, Peguis agreed to create the Peguis First Nation Trust (the "Trust") to manage and administer certain monies to be paid for the purchase of land and other implementation administration. An additional sum was to be received for community purposes as set out in the agreement. The Trust is commonly known as the Peguis First Nation Treaty Land Entitlement (TLE) Trust. The Trust was created September 7, 2007 with Peguis, as settlor, contributing $100 as the initial trust property. The beneficiary of the trust is Peguis. The Trust is managed and controlled by an independently elected Board of Trustees.

Peguis First Nation Surrender Claim Trust

Peguis submitted a claim to Her Majesty the Queen in right of Canada (Canada) under Canada's Specific Claims Policy with respect to the purported surrender by Peguis, on or about September 24, 1907, of its rights and interests in the land referred to as the St. Peters Reserve. Peguis and Canada entered into a settlement agreement in order to settle the claim submitted by Peguis to Canada. The Trust was settled on June 15, 2009. The Trust accounts for its activities as a not-for-profit organization as its trustees and members do not receive any financial interest directly from the Trust. Taxable income in the trust is allocated to the beneficiary annually and as such the Trust is not subject to income tax. The Trust is managed and controlled by an independently elected Board of Trustees.

Chief Peguis Investment Trust

The Trust was created June 1, 2012 with Peguis, as settlor, contributing the initial trust property. The Trust was formed to receive and hold monies from various business interests. The beneficiary of the trust is Peguis. The Trust is managed and controlled by Board of Trustees who were initially appointed from Trustees elected for the other trusts. All subsequent Trustees will be elected.

3. Restricted Cash

Under the terms of the agreements with CMHC, the replacement reserve account is to be credited in the amount of $79,440 ($78,792 in 2015) annually. These funds, along with accumulated interest, must be held in a separate bank account and/or invested only in accounts or instruments insured by the Canada Deposit Insurance Corporation (CDIC) or as may otherwise be approved by CDIC from time to time. The funds in the account may only be used as approved by CMHC. Withdrawals are charged to interest first and then principal. Cash and cash equivalents is comprised of the following:

7. Demand Loans (continued)

The Bank of Montreal demand loans are due on demand and bears interest at the Bank of Montreal's prime rate plus 1.75% to 2.00% (4.45% to 4.70% effective rate), paid monthly. Payments consist of interest only for the first 12 months following the date of initial advance followed by principal and interest payments monthly thereafter amortized over 180 months. The demand loan is secured by the cash held in the Housing Trust. The demand construction loan is secured by an assignment of materials contracts, permits, agreements, licences, and management agreements. Additional security for all BMO loans includes a general security agreement, unlimited guarantee granted by each guarantor, a mortgage and assignment of rents and leases over the certain lands, direction and blocked account agreement, cash held in the Cash Collateral Account, and assignment of all property and perils insurance.

9. Employee Future Benefits

Accrued Termination Entitlement

Accrued termination obligations are based on an actuarial valuation as at March 31, 2016.

The First Nation's contractual commitment for the termination entitlement for employees is to pay out 1 week of salary for each year of service upon voluntary or involuntary termination of employment, if the employee has full-time status of employment and has completed one full year of service, subject to certain maximum entitlements.

The significant actuarial assumptions adopted in measuring the First Nation's accrued termination entitlement include actual periods of service, including fractional years and projected salaries to the date of termination. Significant assumptions include a discount rate of 5.0% (5.0% in 2015), a rate of salary increase of 3.5% (3.5% in 2015) plus an age related merit/promotion scale, probability of termination and retirement.

An analysis of the changes in the employee benefits payable is as follows:

	2016	2015
Balance, beginning of year	$ 1,992,200	$ 2,062,000
Net increase (decrease) in termination entitlements	59,550	(69,800)

18. Budget

The Management Action Plan (Budget) adopted by Council was not prepared on a basis consistent with that used to report actual results (Public Sector Accounting Standards). The budget was prepared on a modified accrual basis while Public Sector Accounting Standards now require a full accrual basis. The budget figures anticipated use of surpluses accumulated in previous years to reduce current year expenditures in excess of current year revenues to $nil. In addition, the budget expensed all tangible capital expenditures rather than including amortization expense. As a result, the budget figures presented in the consolidated statements of operations and change in net debt represent the Financial Plan were without adjustments for amortization:
