To the Members of

The financial statements have been prepared by management in accordance with Canadian public sector accounting standards. When alternative accounting methods exist, management has chosen those it deems most appropriate in the circumstances, in order to ensure that the financial statements are presented fairly, in all material respects.

The First Nation is responsible for ensuring that management fulfills its responsibilities for financial reporting and is ultimately responsible for reviewing and approving the financial statements.

The Chief and Council review the First Nation's financial statements and recommend their approval. The Chief and Council meet periodically with management, to discuss internal controls over the financial reporting issues, to satisfy themselves that each party is properly discharging their responsibilities, and to review the financial statements and the external auditors' report. Independent Auditor's Report

To the Members of McDowell Lake First Nation

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of McDowell Lake First Nation, which comprise the statement of financial position as at March 31, 2016, and the statement of operations, statement of changes in net financial assets (debt) and the statement of cash flows for the year then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with Canadian public sector accounting standards, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of McDowell Lake First Nation as at March 31, 2016 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian public sector accounting standards.

McDowell Lake First Nation Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

March 31, 2016

General	McDowell Lake First Nation (the "First Nation") is a local government whose primary objective is to provide a variety of services to its members.
Continuity of Operations	These financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles. The going concern presentation assumes that the First Nation will continue in operation for the foreseeable future and be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities and commitments in the normal course of business.
Basis of Preparation	The financial statements of the First Nation are the representations of management. They have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles for local governments as prescribed by the Public Sector Accounting Board of the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants and as recommended by Aboriginal Affairs and Northern Development Canada.
Reporting Entity	The reporting entity includes the First Nation and all entities that are controlled by the First Nation. All controlled entities are consolidated according to the First Nation's percentage ownership except for entities that meet the definition of a government business enterprise or a government business partnership, which are included in the financial statements on a modified equity basis. Accounting policies of consolidated and proportionately consolidated entities are conformed to those of the organization and inter-organizational balances and transactions are eliminated upon consolidation.
	Entities and government partnerships proportionately consolidated in the organization's financial statements include:
	K-Net LP First Nation LP NCC Development LP
	Under the modified equity method of accounting, only the First Nation's investment in the entity and the First Nation's portion of the entity's net income and other changes in equity are recorded. No adjustment is made for accounting policies of the entity that are different from those of the organization and inter-organizational balances and transactions are not eliminated.

McDowell Lake First Nation Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

March 31, 2016

Capital Assets

Tangible capital assets are recorded at cost less accumulated amortization. Cost includes all costs directly attributable to acquisition or construction of the tangible capital asset including transportation costs, installment costs, design and engineering fees and site preparation costs. Contributed tangible capital assets are recorded at fair value at the time of the donation, with a corresponding amount recorded as revenue. Amortization is recorded on a straight-line basis over the estimated life of the tangible capital asset commencing once the asset is available for productive use as follows:

Asset	Basis	Rate
Buildings	Straight-line	40 years
Equipment	Straight-line	5 and 25 years
Docks	Straight-line	15 years
Leaseholds	Straight-line	10 years

When a capital asset no longer contributes to the Council's ability to provide services, its carrying amount is written-down to its residual value.

Revenue Recognition

Revenues are recognized in the period in which the transactions or events occurred that gave rise to the revenues. All revenues are recorded on an accrual basis, except when the accruals cannot be determined with a reasonable degree of certainty or when their estimation is impracticable.

Government transfers are recognized as revenues when the transfer is authorized and any eligibility criteria are met, except to the extent that transfer stipulations give rise to an obligation that meets the definition of a liability. Transfers are recognized as deferred revenue when transfer stipulations give rise to a liability. Transfer revenue is recognized in the statement of operations as the stipulation liabilities are settled.

Contributions from other sources are deferred when restrictions are placed on their use by the contributor, and are recognized as revenue when used for the specific purposes.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with Canadian public sector accounting standards requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of certain assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of certain revenues and expenses during the reported period. Actual results could differ from those estimated.
